Report on the Administration of the Access to Information Act

INTRODUCTION

Access to Information Act

Proclaimed on July 1, 1983, the Access to Information Act (Revised Statutes of Canada, Chapter A-1, 1985) (the “Act”) gives Canadian citizens and permanent residents of Canada a broad right of access to information contained in records that are under the control of a government institution. This access is in accordance with the principle that government information should be available to the public, subject to certain specific and limited exceptions.

According to Section 72 of the Act the head of every government institution shall prepare an annual report on its administration of the Act during each government fiscal year for submission to Parliament.

This annual report describes how the Canadian Tourism Commission administered its responsibilities under the Act from April 1, 2019 to March 31, 2020.
